Fr. J. Michael Joncas is a priest of the archdiocese of Minneapolis-St. Paul, a teacher, writer, composer and presenter for conferences and workshops. He has served in parishes, campus ministry, and taught at both the University of St. Thomas and Notre Dame. He received B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of St. Thomas and Notre Dame and a Doctorate from the Pontificio Istituto at the Cellegio Sant'Anselmo in Rome. He has written numerous books and articles on liturgy and scripture.

Mike has many liturgical recordings and scores of songs, psalms and mass settings (including On Eagles' Wings). He has served as an editor or a contributor for numerous hymnals by GIA and other publishers.

Marty Haugen is a liturgical composer, workshop presenter, performing and recording artist & author from Eagan, Minnesota. Currently Marty serves as composer-in-residence at Mayflower United Church of Christ in Minneapolis and serves as adjunct professor at United Theological Seminary in New Brighton, Minnesota.

Marty has presented hundreds of workshops and concerts across North and Central America, Europe, Asia and the Pacific Rim. He has a number of published mass settings for Roman Catholic communities (including Mass of Creation) and a number of communion settings for Lutheran congregations (including Now the Feast and Celebration).

Marty has been a contributor to hymnals for many denominational groups.
